

To. Mr. Ignatius Leong

Re : Joing FIDE

Dear. sir

First, The Korea Chess Association will be introduced. It began in 1998, has 2000 members, which 10% of those members are chess teachers, rest are students and they all take place in the organization.

In modern Korea, the chess teachers in the organization show attempts and active movements to increase communities' interest in chess. Therefore the members of the association are increasing everyday.

Our main purpose is to activate the knowledge of common people on chess, so the larger group of people can experience the enjoyment of chess.

To achieve this purpose, we are planning and leading the activities below:

- " Members of National Olympic Committee, Ministry of Culture & Tourism
- " Provide chess instructors and chess education to public schools and organizations
- " Supply chess documents and information in foreign languages
- " Create a web site on chess to allow the constant flow of information given to people
- " Build Chess Academy to discover and educate talented players
- " Broadcast chess classes and matches
- " Foreign chess tournament players draft and placements
- " Regular Tournament opening and sponsor gathering
- " Invitation of foreign Grand Master and place of Korea in Asia Chess Tournament

With introduction of our purposes, it is impossible to not mention the past FIDE representative, Mr. Tak Sang Jin. For past few years, he did not show any movements in improving the chess society, his address or numbers are temporarily unknown. Because of this fact, many chess members are having strong distrust in his existence or purpose. We are frustrated about this misfortune and also worry if this would affect the advancement of us.

Therefore, the power that was given by FIDE will be taken away and in the name of the new leader, I ask our association to be chosen.

We plan the Korea Chess Association to advance with numerous visions, and show admirable behavior as the members of FIDE.

In Korea, your help and interest are needed to achieve our dream of creating the well educated Grand Master. In favor, we wish for our dream to be achieved by the support of FIDE.

Thank you for your attention

Yours truly,

Selina Chung
Executive Director
