Buenos Aires, May 29th, 2006.

Mr. Kirsan Ilyumzhinov
International Chess Federation

We are pleased to send you the Argentine Chess Federation's proposal, to organize the World Youth Festival 2009.

It would be developed at Mar del Plata city, in the province of Buenos Aires, Argentine Republic, during the last two weeks of November 2006.

The venue will be the Intersur Hotel "13 de Julio" , with accommodations for 900 persons, distributed in 357 wide rooms. It has several parlors for Congresses and conventions. The most important are "Atlantic", with capacity for 600 people, and "Mediterráneo", for 850 people. Girls could play in the first one, while boys could play at "Mediterráneo". Both parlors are adjacent. This hotel has own security service 24 hours a day, with medical service and closed TV circuit, covered garage, electronical locks, safe-deposit boxes, central heating, music, cable TV, DDN and DDI phone. Its special and executive suites have kitchenette, refrigerator and hidro-massage.

The Organizing Committee will cover accommodation for official players and a delegate per federation, with breakfast, buffet and meals from Sunday 19th dinner till Thursday 30th November lunch. Extra players and accompanying persons must pay the following costs:

Executive Suites	U$S 1560 Including taxes
Special Suites	" 1200 Including taxes
Standard rooms	" 435 Per Person, including taxes

(double and triple rooms).

Further information may be get at: www.hotel13dejulio.mdq.com.ar and Mar del Plata's tourism guide www.mardelplata.gov.ar

Transfer: u$S 100.- per person. This fee covers travel from Mar del Plata airport to playing venue and return, credentials and organizing costs. Everybody must pay this fee (players, delegates and accompanying people).

Registration fee: Official players SF 100 and extra players SF 200.
