3. Various: Council's members were generally informed by the Secretary and discussed various subjects concerning training subjects. Also:

4. FIDE Academies: Various subjects were discussed, as:

4.1. Three new applications for FIDE Academies were made by:

4.1.1. Greece - Athens: Grivas Chess International Academy (Annex: TRG-04-FIDE Academy - Greece 1 - Application 1 & 2).

4.1.2. Greece - Thessaloniki: Chess Academy of Thessaloniki Galaxias (Annex: TRG-04-FIDE Academy - Greece 2 - Application).

4.1.3. South Africa - Pretoria: Kara Chess Academy (Annexes: TRG-04-FIDE Academy - South Africa Kara - Application 1 & TRG-04-FIDE Academy - South Africa Kara - Introduction 2 & TRG-04-FIDE Academy - South Africa Kara - Invitation 3 & TRG-04-FIDE Academy - South Africa Kara - Support 4).

4.1.4. Greece - Ptolemaida: Chess Academy of Ptolemais 'Skakistakos' (Annex: TRG-04-FIDE Academy - Greece 3 - Application).

The Council endorsed all applications and asks the FIDE GA to approve them, according to the regulations.

Also, the Council discussed the possibility of increasing the annual fee of the Academies, which stands now on 300 €. The Council feels that a year is in need in order to have a better idea of the interest among the federations and revise it.

5. FIDE Trainers' Awards 2011: The Council approved the replacement of the GS Ignatius Leong with the ED Nigel Freeman and the replacement of Michael Khodarkovsky with Adrian Mikhalchishin from the Judge Panel which was approved in the last Krakow GA. The decision was made by the FIDE Executive Director after his consultation with TRG Secretary. The Council approved the results (Annex: TRG-05-FIDE Trainer Awards 2011-Results). Also, decided to include the well-known Fischer's trainer Jack Collins in to the Hall of Fame.

6. TRG Budget 2012: The Council prepared the relative budget for 2013, according to regulations (Annex: TRG-06-TRG Budget 2013).

7. TRG Seminar Caldas Novas 2011: The Council examined the relative info and the problems that were caused in the cases of Mr. Da Silva and Mr. Tregubov (Annexes: TRG-07-FTS-BRA 2011-Da Silva Case & TRG-07-FTS-BRA 2011-Da Silva Case-Gurevich & TRG-07-FTS-BRA 2011-Da Silva Case-Khodarkovsky).

After consultation the Council came to the following conclusions:

a. Mr. Pavel Tregubov is obliged to pay for his FT as well, as his relative application was made before he submitted the FST application, which was approved early 2012. In case that the FT title is not paid the council suggest that the FST title should be cancelled.

b. It is understandable that Mr. Pavel Tregubov is a much respected trainer and the Lecturers didn't feel obliged to give him a written exam and instead conducted it verbally. However this practice shouldn't be repeated again and in the future the Regulations will be strictly followed.

c. Councillor Michael Khodarkovsky will abstain of conducting TRG seminars for a calendar year (01.01-31.12.2012). This was initially asked by him and TRG Council granted the request.

d. The Council wishes to remind that it is a responsibility and privilege of the respected federation of being a co-organiser of the seminar, to prepare and distribute the relative Certificates of Participation to all participants, according to Regulations. This way every national federation is helping the Lecturers to understand and solve problems that might arise. We feel that a lot could be done much better in cooperation between the parties involved and hope that we will be able to avoid such situations in the future.

8. TRG Publishing Program 2013-2014: The Chairman informed on his meeting with the FIDE President Mr. Kirsan Ilyumzhinov. Mr. President expressed interest and necessity to sponsor a publishing program for the next two years. The Secretary prepared and presented a relative plan (Annex: TRG-08-Publishing Program 2013-2014), which was approved by the Council.

All Council's decisions/proposals will come in force after the next GA approval. The present Minutes will be announced on TRG' website. The Annexes will not be announced before their approval by the next GA. No financial part will be published on the internet.
