5. Technical Regulations

5.1 Time control: Each player shall have 90 minutes with the addition of 30 seconds per move starting from the first move.

5.2 Each category shall be conducted in the Swiss System of 9 or 11 rounds (Depends on the number of players, up to 150 player 9 rounds). Masters will be organised in 9 rounds.

5.3 Default time is 30 minutes. (For instance, the players have the right to be late for the start of the game at the most by 30 minutes. If the players will arrive later, they will be forfeited)

5.4 The Pairings will be made using Swiss Manager program and shall be announced as soon as possible after each round finishes. Pairings will be published on the www.chess-results.com website.

5.5 During play, a player is forbidden to have any electronic device not specifically approved by the arbiter in the playing venue.

5.6 A player may talk only to an arbiter or communicate with his or her opponent as permitted by the Laws of Chess.

5.7 During the playing session, players are not allowed to leave the playing venue without the permission of the Chief Arbiter.

5.8 Players cannot “informally” tell an arbiter that they suspect that another player is cheating. This also applies to any other person having a FIDE Identity Number. All cheating-related communications shall be duly recorded, and the arbiter should ask player to make an official In-Tournament complaint.

5.9 If players inform the chief arbiter to be absent in some rounds-up to 4 rounds, except for the last one-before starting the first round, they will be scored 0.5 for each round.

6. Tie-break System

6.1 The final ranking order of the players is determined by the number of points scored. If at the end of the tournament two or more players are tied for the first place or for any prize, the tie shall be broken as in accordance to the following:
