Rio de Janeiro, August 18th, 2009.

Mr.Kirsan Ilyumzhinov
President International Chess Federation

We are pleased to send you the Brazilian Chess Federation's proposal, to organize the World Youth Championship 2011.

It would be held at Rio de Janeiro city, in the province of Rio de Janeiro, Brazilian Republic, during the two weeks of November 2011.

The venue will be a Five/Four Stars hotel in Barra da Tijuca Beach, place where the new rich people from Rio de Janeiro choose to live and also home of the main soccers football players.

Besides the venue hotel we can accommodate as far as 5,000 persons in nearby hotels, with Five , Four and Three stars class.

The Organizing Committee will cover accommodation for official players and a trainer per federation, with breakfast, buffet and meals from Saturday 12th dinner till Wednesday 22th November lunch. Extra players and accompanying persons must pay the following costs to the organization:

5 stars *****

four p/r room	578€ + 100€ = 678€ total minimum
triple room	653€ + 100€ = 753€ total minimum
double room	960€ + 100€ = 1060€ total minimum single room	960€ + 100€ = 1060€ total minimum

4 Stars ****

Rio de Janeiro is a know world city for it's beauty and warm people and is eargely waiting to welcome all the chess family.

Registration cost: 100 euros per person. This fee covers travel from Rio de Janeiro airport to Hotel and return and credentials. Everybody must pay this fee (players, delegates and accompanying people).

Other hotels: Rio de Janeiro is a great touristical city; then the Organizing Committee can offer a lot of accommodation possibilities, from  hotels to apart hotels.

About our organizing experience, myself as a direct organizer made a Continental Championship, 5 Pan-American Youth Championships, two Pan-American Team Championship, two Pan-American School Championship, two World Amateur championship and South American Youth Championship, all of them with hundreds of players.

Officials: Together with the organization of the 2011 World Youth offers to FIDE

- a) Office facilities and meeting halls
- b) English speaking secretaries
- c) VIP treatment

Looking forward your kind answer and in the confidence it should be positive.

Yours truly.

GM Darcy Lima
Vice President of Foreign Affairs , FIDE Delegate, Chief of Organizer Committee
